New Life Bible Church has outgrown their home. Above are two views of their new ministry center!

In the summer and fall of 1999 a new ministry began among the Spanish-speaking people of Yakima. Beginning with person-to-person evangelism, a Bible study group began meeting in a home in the spring of 2000. Four subsequent moves to larger facilities found the group in their own church building at 1506 Lincoln Ave. in Yakima in November of 2001. God has continued to add more and more new believers, and now with an average attendance of 60 people for Sunday worship (a high of 80 on several occasions), the Lincoln Ave. building has been very overcrowded, with no classrooms or nursery. We have joined with New Life Bible Church in praying and seeking God's plan for this ministry. God has answered by allowing the church to purchase the facility shown above. There is ample classroom space, a fully functional kitchen and fellowship area, and a worship center that will readily seat 125 people. We thank God for the prayer and financial support of many people who have responded to this need. This is God's project! There will be a mortgage balance of approximately $145,000.00 that is yet to be paid. Thank you for your interest and participation! Call Pastor Garcia (509-457-8416) and schedule a tour of this new facility at 1115 S. 5th Ave. and hear what God is doing to reach Hispanics in the Yakima Valley! Moving day is November 15, 2004! Praises be to God!

Students participating in the BTCPL class on October 23, 2004

A new class of 14 students from four area churches has begun a two year advanced study of Bible Survey and Theology. The study was developed by Bible Training Center for Pastors and Leaders and is taught worldwide in many languages. The Spanish language class meets at 1st Presbyterian Church in Yakima for four hours every Saturday.

Praises:

- God's wonderful provision of a more spacious building to New Life Hispanic Church for ministry!
- The new BTCPL class for leaders

Prayer Requests:

- Steadfastness for students of BTCPL
- New prayer and financial partners
- A bi-lingual missionary/pastor for Toppenish; church & parsonage are already available!
